Dear Parents,

Welcome back to a new school year! I hope you had a restful Summer holiday. This half-term we have lots of exciting things planned and I cannot wait for the children to learn and experience these new things. ‘Where in time do the Romans fit in time?’ is our topic up until Christmas and will cover a range of different historical events.

Below are some of the things we are learning this half-term in English & Maths as well as the homework expectations for this term:

English	Maths
Key text: Stone Age Boy by Satoshi Kitamura Spelling, Punctuation & Grammar: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Full stops and capital letters. Question marks. Conjunctions, adjectives and pronouns. Writing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Recounts and diaries, historical narrative, non-chronological reports, location reviews and brochures Reading: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Justifying inferences with evidence from the text. Identifying the features of different text types. We will also be continuing to have Book Talk sessions three times a week.	Place value: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Numbers to 1000 Four operations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Adding and subtracting with renaming. Multiplying and dividing 3, 4 and 8 times tables. Measure: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Length in centimetres, metres and kilometres. We will continue to practice our times tables daily.
Homework
The children will be set one assignment on both Mathematics and Reading Eggs every week and they will have one week to complete these. They will need to read for 20 minutes every night and record this in their planner
